

Paul Bernard Lee
Atlanta, GA

Paul was born in Atlanta Georgia and was reared by his mother and father in a household of three brothers and two sisters. He Graduated from Dekalb College in 1970 with an associate degree in business management.

Employment History

- President and Founder of Children's Burial Assistance, Inc. 2007 – Present
- The United Way Atlanta - Loaned Executive from 2006-2007
- Lee Enterprise, Inc Atlanta - Business Consultant from 2004-2006
- Hillcrest Foods (Waffle House Inc.) - Regional Manager from 2002-2004
- Brenau University - VP of Development from 1999-2002
- California African American Museum - VP of Development from 1997-1999
- Caring For Babies With Aids - VP of Development from 1995-1997
- The United Way Los Angeles - Director of Development from 1990-1995
- The United Way Arizona - Vice President from 1987-90
- The United Way Richmond - Senior Campaigner from 1982-1987

Throughout the 30 plus years as a nonprofit executive, Paul held numerous volunteer board positions with the following organizations:

American Cancer Society/ American Red Cross/ Los Angeles Boys and Girls Club/ National Academy of Volunteerism/ National Society of Fundraising Executives/ Virginia Children's Hospital/ Mesa AZ Police Widow Survivor Fund/ Los Angeles Conference of Baptist Churches Annual Food Drive/ California Habitat for Humanities/ California Senior Housing Project/ Los Angeles Food Bank/ Chandler AZ Hospital Capital Campaign/ Los Angeles Missing and Exploited Children/ Virginia Center for Performing Arts/ AZ Mayor's Counsel on Homelessness/ Aids Counsel Virginia/ Richmond Va. Senior Center/ Los Angeles Humane Society/ Lion's Club in Mesa Arizona.

Goals and Objectives

As President and Founder of Children's Burial Assistance, Inc. the organizations primary focus and goal is to assist families needing help with the funeral, burial, or cremation of deceased minor children. In addition, develop a program that will provide temporary life insurance on uninsured children, while teaching parents or guardians the importance of providing life insurance on their children as well as themselves.